Chord Play

The Art of Arranging at the Piano

Forrest Kinney

Create your own arrangements at the piano in a variety of styles with this comprehensive series by Forrest Kinney. Learn how to:

- ▶ Make your own arrangements of popular songs, classical themes, hymns, and more
- ▶ Read “fake books” and be able to add stylish and colorful chords to melodies
- ▶ Learn about music theory and chords in an enjoyable, musical, and practical way
- ▶ Discover how to improvise with your arrangements

With an exploratory, “hands on” approach, Chord Play offers an intuitive way to progressively learn the art of arranging at the piano. The series explores all the most commonly used chords in classical, jazz, and popular styles. With Chord Play, pianists of all levels will discover that arranging at the piano is not only a practical and valuable skill, but also an enjoyable art!

Chord Play 1

- ▶ Arrange familiar melodies with major and minor triads in a variety of styles including classical, ragtime, and boogie
- ▶ Add tones to triads such as seconds, sevenths, and suspended fourths
- ▶ Create surprising harmonies, and add fills, introductions, and endings

Chord Play 2

- ▶ Use inversions to create left-hand accompaniments in a wide variety of styles including gospel, Latin, and country
- ▶ Play inversions with the right hand to create accompaniments and arrangements

Chord Play 3

- ▶ Play chords with both hands simultaneously to create full-sounding arrangements
- ▶ Arrange with minor 7th and major 7th chords in many styles

Chord Play 4

- ▶ Create arrangements using secondary dominants, diminished chords, augmented chords, and the remaining 7th chords
- ▶ Use “chromatic connecting chords” to add powerful bass lines and dramatic harmonies to your arrangements

Chord Play 5

- ▶ Explore the art of voicing using four kinds of 9th chords and six kinds of 11th and 13th chords
- ▶ Use these contemporary harmonies to add complex tone colors to classical, jazz, and popular melodies

Voice Series, 2025 Edition

The Voice Series, 2025 Edition is North America's leading resource for teaching and studying singing. With a refreshed collection of exceptional repertoire, vocalises, and recitatives, this series focuses on building a strong foundation for musical success by integrating effective technique at every level and supporting healthy vocal development in young singers.

Voice Repertoire

Preparatory to Level 10

Spanning the Baroque to Contemporary eras, musical theater, and popular styles, the repertoire books feature international folk songs, beloved classics, and over 40 newly commissioned works. With the addition of Repertoire 9 and Repertoire 10, this series provides a rich, pedagogically balanced selection for singers of all levels.

Recitatives

Levels 9–10 (Vol. 1 and Vol. 2)

Recitatives from operas, oratorios, and cantatas are presented in two volumes based on voice type: Volume 1 includes selections for Soprano, Mezzo-Soprano, Contralto, Countertenor; Volume 2 includes selections for Countertenor, Tenor, Baritone, and Bass.

Vocalises, Technique, and Musicianship

*Technique and Musicianship Preparatory–Level 4
Vocalises, Technique, and Musicianship Levels 5–8
Vocalises 9–10*

Exercises for technique, aural skills, and reading skills have been added at the elementary levels (Preparatory–Level 4, one book) and the intermediate levels (Levels 5–8, four books). Vocalises, introduced at Level 5, are vocal etudes sung only on vowels that assist singers in developing the agility and control required in repertoire. Piano accompaniment tracks are now available for all vocalises.

Viola Series, 2013 Edition

This groundbreaking series for viola offers a sound and progressive collection of Repertoire, Etudes, Technique, and Orchestral Excerpts for the aspiring virtuoso. Representing all major style periods and a variety of genres, the Viola Series, 2013 Edition offers all the music and tools needed to support a comprehensive course of study from the beginner to advanced levels.

Viola Repertoire and Recordings

Preparatory to Level 8

A rich and varied selection of music in each of these nine progressive volumes appeals to violists of all ages. From the Preparatory Level through Level 8, students will be exposed to quality selections originally written for viola, fun arrangements of traditional fiddle and folk tunes, as well as contemporary pieces by notable composers such as Violet Archer, Carey Cheney, and Fritz Kriesler.

Quality recordings by North America's finest violists and accompanists are conveniently included with Repertoire books to offer students a model for performance practice and the convenience of accompanied rehearsal at home.

Viola Etudes

Preparatory to Level 8

Two volumes of Etudes (Preparatory–4 and 5–8) include selections that focus on technique for the left hand, right hand, and tone development at every level of study. Chosen as much for their musicality as their pedagogical benefits, these Etudes raise the study of technique to a new level of enjoyment.

Viola Syllabus, 2013 Edition

This resource outlines the viola requirements for the Preparatory to ARCT levels of The RCM Certificate Program.

Viola Technique

Preparatory to Level 10

This thoughtful progression of scales and arpeggios will encourage agility, accuracy, and intonation from the Preparatory Level through Level 10 in one complete volume. Each technical exercise builds on skills from the previous level and provides a continual challenge for students throughout their course of study.

Viola Orchestral Excerpts

Level 7 to ARCT

One outstanding volume of Orchestral Excerpts includes a wealth of excerpts from Level 7 through ARCT that are often greater in length than standard audition fare. Students will achieve a better understanding of great symphonic literature and learn more about the style of each composer by playing each excerpt in context. This book encourages more successful auditions and better-educated orchestral performers.

Cello Series, 2013 Edition

This inaugural edition of the Cello Series offers a sound and progressive collection of Repertoire, Etudes, Technique, and Orchestral Excerpts for the aspiring cellist. With an expansive representation of musical styles from all eras, this series addresses the need for a single collection of quality educational materials to foster musical development and instill appreciation of the richness and diversity of music written for cello.

Cello Repertoire and Recordings

Preparatory to Level 8

Supporting a balanced course of study, this series organizes repertoire into nine volumes from the Preparatory Level through Level 8. Each level offers music from a range of styles and compositional eras, including standard literature, new arrangements of familiar tunes, and music written for cellists, by cellists. These selections provide the flexibility to choose pedagogically appropriate material suited to each individual, and to motivate students to fully develop their musicianship and technique.

Quality recordings by some of North America's finest cellists and accompanists are conveniently included with Repertoire books to offer students a model for performance practice and the convenience of accompanied rehearsal at home.

Cello Etudes

Preparatory to Level 8

An extensive offering of Etudes ranging from traditional to contemporary literature is organized into two progressively-leveled volumes (Preparatory–4 and 5–8). These musical selections present an inspiring approach to the reinforcement and development of technique.

Cello Technique

Preparatory to Level 10

A carefully sequenced compilation of scales and arpeggios in one complete volume supports the technical demands of the repertoire in the corresponding Level's from Preparatory through Level 10. Each technical exercise builds on skills from the previous level, encouraging the steady development of agility, accuracy, and intonation.

Cello Orchestral Excerpts

Level 7 to ARCT

This comprehensive volume of Orchestral Excerpts includes standard orchestral literature to prepare developing cellists for exams and audition requirements. Bowing and fingering suggestions follow established principles of orchestral playing and are provided to assist students in making stylistically informed performance decisions.

Flute Series, 2010 Edition

Overtones

Unparalleled in scope, Overtones offers all the music flutists want in one complete series! This progressive collection includes outstanding repertoire and supporting resources such as Etudes, Orchestral Excerpts, and Technique. The richness of music carefully selected for this compilation will resonate with teachers and students at every level of study.

Flute Repertoire and Recordings

Preparatory to Level 8

Each of the nine progressive volumes of Repertoire introduces students to essential flute literature. With a breadth of composers, style periods, genres, pedagogical challenges, and cultural flavors in each volume, the Repertoire books present an intrinsic approach for developing flutists. Throughout the series, students will experience some of the most influential standard works written for flute, both accompanied and unaccompanied, while contemporary compositions and alluring arrangements bring a renewed energy to flute study.

Quality recordings by some of North America's finest flutists and accompanists are conveniently included with Repertoire books to offer students a model for performance practice and the convenience of accompanied rehearsal at home.

Flute Etudes and Recordings

Preparatory to Level 8

These two comprehensive volumes (Preparatory–4 and 5–8) use engaging pieces to assist in the development of technique and the cultivation of expression and musicality. Students begin to experiment with sound, tone production, extended techniques, and graphic notation from the earliest levels, supporting their study of the selections available in the Repertoire books.

Quality recordings by some of North America's finest flutists and accompanists are conveniently included with Etudes books to offer students a model for performance practice and the convenience of accompanied rehearsal at home.

Flute Orchestral Excerpts

Level 2 to ARCT

This compilation of standard orchestral passages for flute is an indispensable resource for the developing years and beyond. Teachers and students will find this unrivalled volume essential for examination or audition preparation.

Flute Technique

Preparatory to Level 10

This thorough resource presents scales and arpeggios with recommended articulation patterns, ranges, keys, and tempos. Technical elements are introduced in a natural, cumulative approach, and are summarized in easy-to-read overview charts at every level.

Clarinet Series, 2014 Edition

This new series offers a sequenced approach to the study of clarinet from the beginner to advanced levels. With a progressive collection of Repertoire, Etudes, Orchestral Excerpts, and Technique, the Clarinet Series, 2014 Edition provides complete support for teachers and students at every level of study. Recordings are conveniently included with Repertoire books to offer students a model for performance practice and the convenience of accompanied rehearsal at home.

Clarinet Repertoire and Recordings

Preparatory to Level 8

Nine progressive volumes of Repertoire expose students to a wealth of music from the earliest works for clarinet to accompanied and unaccompanied contemporary compositions. Students will explore some of the most definitive solo pieces written for clarinet, along with popular folk tunes, Klezmer melodies, Classical solos, and contemporary compositions that incorporate traditional and extended techniques.

Each Repertoire book includes recordings with both performance and accompaniment-only tracks to offer students a model for performance practice and the convenience of accompanied rehearsal at home.

Clarinet Etudes

Preparatory to Level 8

Two volumes (Preparatory–4 and 5–8) offer a context for the development of technique and musicality at every level of study. Each selection addresses a specific technical skill while providing further opportunity to practice expression, tone production, and encourage the sequential development of articulation, rhythm, and range.

Clarinet Technique

Preparatory to Level 10

One cumulative volume of Technique includes scales and arpeggios with recommended tempos and articulations. With opportunities to extend and vary their daily practice routine, clarinetists may reinforce the skills required in each corresponding level of Repertoire and Etudes.

Clarinet Orchestral Excerpts

Level 7 to ARCT

A companion volume to the Repertoire and Etudes books, this progressive volume of Orchestral Excerpts is an excellent resource for examination or audition preparation. Featuring some of the most notable excerpts for clarinet, this publication will become a treasured addition to every clarinetist's library.

The Clarinet Series, 2014 Edition serves as an official resource for The RCM Certificate Program.

Saxophone Series, 2014 Edition

Unparalleled in scope, this groundbreaking series offers a single collection of Repertoire and supporting materials written or arranged specifically for E♭ Alto and B♭ Tenor Saxophone. With Repertoire spanning arrangements of Baroque repertoire to contemporary works for saxophone, Etudes, Technique, and Orchestral Excerpts, this comprehensive series serves as a balanced and organized pedagogical resource from beginner to advanced levels of study.

Saxophone Repertoire and Recordings

Preparatory to Level 8

Nine progressive volumes of Repertoire expose students to original works and arrangements of diverse styles from W.A. Mozart to Violet Archer, with selected works by notable jazz artist Paul Desmond (Take Five), and living composer Phil Woods. Each level provides opportunities to explore Baroque, Classical, Romantic, and contemporary works, with original, unaccompanied selections from Levels 5 through 8 that use extended techniques such as multiphonics, key clicks, and bisbigliando. Earlier works pre-dating the origin of the saxophone have been carefully arranged with consideration of the unique quality of the instrument. Exposure to these works helps to develop musicianship and an understanding of tonality, creating well-rounded and versatile performers. Selections written for both E♭ Alto and B♭ Tenor Saxophone include piano accompaniments that function with both instruments.

Quality recordings by some of North America's finest saxophonists and accompanists are conveniently included with Repertoire books to offer students a model for performance practice and the convenience of accompanied rehearsal at home.

Saxophone Etudes

Preparatory to Level 8

Two volumes of Etudes (Preparatory–4 and 5–8) provide additional works in a broad range of styles, each with a specific technical focus. The Etudes support students in their study of the Repertoire selections and help them to develop into technically, stylistically, and musically competent performers.

Saxophone Technique

Preparatory to Level 10

This thoughtfully organized compilation of scales and arpeggios presents the fundamentals of technique within an appropriate range for each level. Each level builds upon and reinforces the development of articulation, rhythm, tone, and intonation.

Saxophone Orchestral Excerpts

Level 7 to ARCT

One volume of Orchestral Excerpts includes many of the most well-known and influential excerpts written for saxophone, including contemporary orchestral works and traditional band repertoire by composers such as Gershwin and Vaughan Williams. This book provides required selections for examinations or auditions, and serves as a fundamental resource for standard ensemble repertoire.

Trumpet Series, 2013 Edition

A comprehensive pedagogical resource, the Trumpet Series, 2013 Edition addresses the need for a single collection of quality music materials to foster development from the beginner to advanced levels. With Repertoire, Etudes, Technique, and Orchestral Excerpts, this series offers a balanced and organized course of study for the aspiring virtuoso.

Trumpet Repertoire and Recordings

Preparatory to Level 8

Nine volumes of Repertoire have been carefully selected to encourage a singing approach to trumpet playing. A wealth of folk songs, transcriptions, and arrangements of well-known repertoire at the early levels assist in the development of tone and flow of wind, preparing students for the Baroque, Classical, and 19th- through 21st-century repertoire found in the intermediate through advanced levels. Throughout the series, special attention has been given to issues of range, dynamics, and articulation, aimed at steady technical progress, along with exposure to a wide range of styles and musical eras.

Quality recordings by some of North America's finest trumpeters and accompanists are conveniently included with Repertoire books to offer students a model for performance practice and the convenience of accompanied rehearsal at home.

Trumpet Etudes

Preparatory to Level 8

Two volumes of Etudes (Preparatory–4 and 5–8) organize music by style. Lyrical Etudes facilitate excellence of tone; Technical Etudes promote the development of articulation, rhythm, and range, while continuing to focus on phrasing and sound production. The Etudes have been chosen equally for their reflection of these pedagogical priorities and their musical interest.

Trumpet Technique

Preparatory to Level 8

One volume of Technique introduces scales and arpeggios in a sequential approach, presenting technique fundamentals within an appropriate range for each level. Mouthpiece buzzing is encouraged throughout the course of study to aid in the development of aural skills, warm sound, and intonation.

Trumpet Orchestral Excerpts

Level 8 to ARCT

One volume of Orchestral Excerpts includes many of the most well-known and influential excerpts written for the trumpet. With selections from orchestral repertoire, traditional band repertoire by notable composers such as Shostakovich, Strauss, Tchaikovsky, and Holst, and significant brass quintet pieces, this book provides required selections for examinations and auditions. It also serves as a general study resource for developing a solid grounding in standard ensemble repertoire. The excerpts were carefully chosen for their technical importance and artistic value, and reflect a broad range of musical styles and eras.

The Trumpet Series, 2013 Edition serves as an official resource for The RCM Certificate Program.

The mission of The Royal Conservatory – to develop human potential through leadership in music and the arts – is based on the conviction that the arts are humanity’s greatest means to achieve personal growth and social cohesion. Advancing the transformative effect that music and the arts have on society lies at the heart of everything The Royal Conservatory does.

The more than five million alumni of The Royal Conservatory have enjoyed the many benefits of music study and carried these benefits into subsequent careers in a wide range of fields, including medicine, business, politics, education, science, and sports. Others, such as Glenn Gould, Oscar Peterson, Diana Krall, Teresa Stratas, Sir Roger Norrington, and Jon Vickers, have achieved international musical acclaim.

The RCM Certificate Program provides a recognized standard of musical achievement through an effectively sequenced system of study and individual student assessments, from preparatory to advanced levels. Considered the foremost music education system in Canada, the United States, and many other countries around the world, its broad use has bound together individuals from these nations with the thread of shared creative experiences.

The Royal Conservatory is also committed to enabling greater access to music through digital solutions, with a focus on: supporting and engaging the teaching community; cultivating and inspiring students and their families; bolstering and highlighting Canadian talent; and enriching and enhancing the future of music and music education.

Over the last two decades, The Royal Conservatory has been a leader in the development of arts-based programs designed to address a range of social issues in the development of arts-based programs designed to address a wide range of social issues, such as the academic achievement of youth at risk, the development of children in their early years, and the wellness of seniors. Learning Through the Arts® and The Marilyn Thomson Early Childhood Education Centre use the latest research findings in neuroscience and the social sciences to address important health, social, and developmental issues.

At its national base, the TELUS Centre for Performance and Learning in Toronto, The Royal Conservatory offers classes and lessons for individuals of all ages and abilities at the Royal Conservatory School, as well as an extensive set of training programs for gifted young artists through The Glenn Gould School and The Phil and Eli Taylor Performance Academy for Young Artists. The Conservatory also presents and produces a wide range of concerts featuring the finest Canadian and international artists in its magnificent performance spaces, including the internationally acclaimed Koerner Hall, Temerty Theatre, and Mazzoleni Concert Hall in historic Ihnatowycz Hall.
