Dr. Dawn Dalangin Hawk is a Nationally Certified Teacher of Music (NCTM) and a Royal Conservatory of Music (RCM) Certified teacher, specializing in advanced levels of piano and theory. She received a B.S. in Mechanical Engineering, a B.M. and M.M. in Piano Performance from Colorado State University, and a D.M.A. in Piano Performance from the University of Georgia. She is the Executive Director and Founder of Hawk Music Academy in Cumming, Georgia, where she teaches with her husband, Dr. S. Eric Hawk, orchestra conductor and composer. "The Hawks" are Co-Founders of the Symphony Orchestra of North Georgia (SONG), a non-profit organization with three ensembles for members of all ages. At SONG, Dawn serves as the Executive Director/President, pianist, and bassist, and Eric as the Music Director. When not teaching, practicing, or rehearsing, the Hawks enjoy spending time doing yoga, running, cycling, and playing with their five labradors and their 2-year old daughter, Lilu.

South Central

Dr. Maria Mika Guénette earned a Bachelor of Music degree from the University of Ottawa under the tutelage of Jean-Paul Sevilla. Her Master of Music degree in Piano Performance at Tokyo Geijutsu Daigaku was made possible with an all-inclusive grant by the Japanese Ministry of Education (Monbusho). At the Eastman School of Music, she was awarded a Doctor of Musical Arts degree specializing in Piano Accompanying and Chamber Music, as well as a Master of Music degree in Harpsichord Performance. Dr. Guénette is the keyboardist for East Texas Symphony Orchestra and serves as staff pianist at Southern Methodist University. She was previously on faculty at University of Texas at Tyler, Winston-Salem State University, Greensboro College, and the North Carolina School of the Arts. Maria runs a private piano studio in Carrollton, Texas and is a member of the RCM College of Examiners.
