

Teaching Intermediate Piano Course

Inspire your intermediate students to broaden their stylistic horizons, increase their autonomy, and remain engaged despite increasingly busy lives.

Learn from master teachers including...

- Kent McWilliams
- Pamela Pike
- Forrest Kinney
- Christopher Hahn

Study from the comfort of home

Cohorts of 20-25 Students

Cost: $499
(payment plan available)

Course Features

- 16 Video Demonstrations
- Discussion Forums with Like-Minded Colleagues
- Weekly Assignments with Personalized Feedback
- 50+ Comprehensive Articles

2019/20 Course Sessions

Fall 2019

Sep 25 – Dec 4, 2019
Apply by Sep 15, 2019

Winter 2020

Feb 5 – Apr 15, 2020
Apply by Jan 26, 2020

Summer 2020

Jun 10 – Aug 19, 2020
Apply by May 28, 2020

Weeks 1-2

Fundamentals of Piano Pedagogy

- Building a foundation for successful and continued student growth

Week 3

Physical Approach and Technique

- Methodologies for fostering technical fluency and precise sound production

Week 4

Music Literacy

- Connecting music theory and history to the study of repertoire

Week 5

Musicianship

- Strategies for teaching sight-reading, aural skills, and improvisation

Weeks 6-7

Repertoire

- Cultivating stylistic awareness and understanding of historical performance practice

Week 8

Artistry and Expression

- Incorporating imagery and analysis to inform performances and secure memorization

Weeks 9-10

RCM Certificate Program

- Using milestones and evaluation as a motivating force

Summative Portfolio

- A complete collection of assignments that showcase your achievement and extend your learning

To apply, please visit rcmusic.com/PianoTeacherCourses