Isaac Mizrahi

Isaac Mizrahi has spent over 35 years at the intersection of entertainment, media, and fashion, earning acclaim as a performer, host, writer, designer, and producer. Performing with his incredible jazz band, Isaac brings his signature wit and musical flair to the concert stages. His multi-week residency at New York City's Café Carlyle sells out every year, and he celebrates his 10-year anniversary of playing this iconic venue in 2026. Isaac made his Broadway debut playing Amos Hart in the musical Chicago in 2022. The New York Times praised him as "a founding father of a genre that fuses performance art, music and stand-up comedy."

In 2025, the cult classic documentary Unzipped, which Mizrahi co-created and stars in, celebrates its 30th anniversary at the Sundance Film Festival. He hosted the Emmy Award-winning Isaac Mizrahi Show for seven years, served as a judge on all seven seasons of Project Runway: All Stars, and continues to appear widely across television and film.

Mizrahi has directed productions for the Opera Theatre of St. Louis and designed for the Metropolitan Opera. He also annually narrates and directs the children's classic Peter and the Wolf, a production he created for the Guggenheim Museum in New York City.

Through his company IM Entertainment, Mizrahi develops original projects in television, theatre, and publishing. He is currently a Consulting Producer on Hulu's Mid Century Modern. His New York Times bestselling memoir I.M. was published in 2019.
